

BAF 141 : Law & Banking: Principles

This course provides an overview of the legal aspects of banking and the legal framework within which banks function. Topics include the court system, consumer protection, tangible and intangible property ownership, and the legalities and regulations of bank transactions. Upon completion, students should be able to discuss the non-technical aspects of the legal system and how these affect the bank's organization and operation.

Credits 3

Class Hours 3

Lab Hours 0

Clinical Experience Hours 0