Locating Students on Campus

For emergency situations, persons who either come to campus or telephone the college to locate a student on campus must contact the Welcome Center in the A Building. The Welcome Desk operator will notify a campus security officer who will deliver the message to the student, if appropriate.