

Class Locations

Many continuing education courses and services are provided on the main campus. Other classes are conducted in surrounding communities or within a particular business or industry in Columbus County. Almost any course can and will be organized in a specific geographical area of the county when a sufficient number of citizens indicate an interest in having a class brought to a particular location.