

Financial Aid Probation

Students who are suspended may appeal to the Financial Aid office to have their financial aid eligibility reinstated. The reinstatement is for one probationary payment period (semester). (See the appeal process outlined below). A student on probation may not receive financial aid for the subsequent payment period unless:

1. The student is now meeting the financial aid satisfactory academic progress policy at the end of the probation period (semester).
2. The Financial Aid Office determines the student met the requirements specified in the appeal which is maintaining a 2.0 GPA and a 75% completion rate for each semester while on probation. This is a Financial Aid Success Plan to help students regain Satisfactory Academic Progress.
