

Guest Speakers

College faculty and staff visit area schools upon request to provide special talks and programs in their areas of expertise. As a community service, Southeastern also shares its talented faculty and staff with community and civic organizations at no cost. The group of speakers is versed in a variety of topics. Persons desiring information on guest speakers should call the college at (910) 642-7141.