

Home School Students

Students who are home schooled will be considered for admission on the same basis as North Carolina public school students provided the home school complies with state regulations.

The home school transcript must include:

- Name of the student
- Student's social security number and birth date
- Courses taken and credits earned each year
- Cumulative grade point average or other measures of academic progress
- Date of graduation
- Signature of school administrator