

Interim Suspension

If an act of misconduct threatens the health or well-being of any member of the college community or seriously disrupts the function and good order of the college, a college official may direct students involved to cease and desist such conduct and advise them that failing to cease and desist results in immediate suspension. If students fail to cease and desist, the college official may then suspend them from the class or the college until a resolution of the matter can be made. The college official invoking such suspension must notify the Dean of Student Services in writing of the individuals involved and the nature of the incident as soon as possible but no later than 24 hours after the incident. The Dean of Student Services is responsible for implementing student conduct procedures.
