

Investigation And Decision

Within five working days after the charge is filed, the program director/coordinator completes an investigation of the charge and reviews findings with the Executive Vice President. After discussing the infraction with the Vice President, the program director/coordinator meets with the respondent student(s) to discuss the alleged infraction at which time the program director/coordinator impose a sanction consistent with those described below