

Personal Interest

Courses offered for personal growth or enjoyment are considered personal interest classes. They cover a variety of topic areas and are designed to make interested students stronger, more well-rounded individuals as well as enhance the quality of life in our service area.