

Residency

Beginning September 11, 2017, students applying for admission or readmission to Southeastern Community College must establish residency using a Residency Determination Service (RDS) application. This service will enable students to use one in- or out-of-state residency determination for admissions application to multiple North Carolina colleges and universities and to demonstrate residency for financial aid consideration.

Visit the North Carolina Residency Determination Services website for more information.