

Student Employment Program

Federal Work-Study Program (FCWS). This federally funded program provides on-campus work opportunities for students with limited financial resources. Students are paid an hourly wage. Students must be eligible for Federal Pell Grant funds and be enrolled in at least 6 credit hours to receive FWS funds and maintain satisfactory academic progress. An effort is made to assign students to jobs related to their major field of study or to utilize their specific skills and interests.